

Best Wishes for a Merry Christmas

Robbins Library
Arlington, Mass.

The Meaning Of Xmas

As we sit in a fine soft chair on Christmas Eve, exhausted from the hustle and bustle of this busy season, our minds wander and we are confronted with the question—"Is this the real true meaning of Christmas?"

As we ponder this question over and over again in our minds for an answer, we go back in spirit to more than nineteen hundred years ago, to a little cave on the hillside of Bethlehem, where we see the Saviour of mankind as a tiny babe amid poverty and unwanted by his own people, coming into this world. Here we behold the angels singing their glad song—"Glory to God in the Highest, and Peace on Earth to Men of Goodwill."

It is this angel's song that is so sadly needed in our world today. It is this song that leaders throughout the world should learn to sing. If they could only do this, then they would fall on bended knee in prayer and silence, and learn the great lesson that the Saviour of the world intended for ALL men.

Then, and only then, will this Christmas, and every other Christmas, be for you and for me—a Holy and a Blessed Christmas.

Arlington Chef Has Narrow Escape In Assault - Robbery

An Arlington short order chef employed at the Paul Revere Restaurant, in Arlington Center, residing at 40 Fairmont Street, Cambridge, was brutally assaulted by three youths early Sunday morning while on his way to work, and robbed of 59 cents, on Harvey Street, North Cambridge.

Knocked down and stabbed about the body, chest, arms and legs by one of the three youthful robbers, Raymond Varney, Jr., 21, wandered around dazed for more than thirty minutes after the attack, finally making his way to the home of his friend and Navy pal, Lawrence Reinhold, 21 who lives nearby, at 84 Tufts Street, Arlington, bleeding profusely from his wounds and faint from the loss of blood. Taken at once to the Cambridge hospital by his friends, fifty-four stitches were required to close the wounds. Later dismissed from the Hospital Varney, will be forced to remain

Arlington Ushers In Yuletide With Prayer And Festivities

The townspeople of Arlington formally ushered in the observances marking the Yule-Tide season, on Sunday, when in addition to the usual religious observances at the churches, in scores of parties, both large and small with their candy, cakes, icecream, punch and jolly shows, gifts, and needless to say a generous assortment of Santas both large and small, the spirit of the season was made manifest.

Winter officially started on Tuesday, but Mother Nature was one day ahead in her schedule for this year. Cognizant of the beauty and romance which should attend the season, she added her perfect gift of a first New England snow storm, draping highways and lanes, and fields and hills in virgin white, with a ten inch snow cover, which turned New England into a winter wonderland, and laid the perfect background for a White Christmas.

The jingling of sleigh bells was heard over the Arlington hills, and out toward Lexington and Concord puns and sleighs were the order of the day.

Throughout the day and evening, familiar carols rang out in churches, at private gatherings along snow covered paths and sidewalks.

NO CLUE YET TO MEANEST THIEVES

No clue has yet been found to the fifty two bundles of Christmas trees, which William Ingersoll, of 5 Mill Street, reported as stolen from in front of 751 Massachusetts avenue last week. A truck with high front and sides, green in color, was reported to have been driven away from the premises at about that time. The trees were valued at from $2.50 to $2.75 a bundle.

Another group of the seasons meanest thieves is reported to have stolen about three dozen Christmas tree lights from in front of the home of Clifford W. Cook, town welfare agent, at 11 Bailey road, last week. A Bellingham street resident, Harold Nordeen, is also mourning the loss of thirty Christmas lights presumably taken the same night.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Allen, of 67 Churchill avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marilyn Ruth Allen, to Mr. Gibson L. Busfield, of 122 Jason Street. Mr. Busfield is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy W. Busfield.

St. James C. Y. O. To Repeat "Swanee Minstrels" Jan. 3

The finest tribute ever accorded to any organization in the history of the town of the town of Arlington was that given to the members of St. James Parish, Arlington Heights, during the past week, when they were requested to repeat their superb performances of "Swanee Minstrels" given on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 14 and 15.

Realizing all the hard work involved in such an undertaking, the director of "Swanee Minstrels," William J. Finn, has yielded to this public demand and will again present this excellent production on Monday evening, January 3, 1949, in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Arlington Center, at 8:15 o'clock.

The Director of the cast wishes to express his sincere and heartfelt thanks to the people, not only of St. James Parish, but also to the people of Arlington and the surrounding towns, for their splendid spirit of cooperation. He feels sorry that so many hundreds of people were turned away from seeing the show, but he explains that fire laws in the permit given by the Board of Selectmen of the town must be complied with.

In the great success of the show, the Director in his humility, claims that credit should be given not to him alone, but to the members of the chorus, the specialists, some of whom were making their first appearance before any audience, and particularly to the eight end men who worked so

Angel A-Top A Tree

We're all in the midst of Christmas festivities, Gala parties, office get-togethers, trees for the youngsters, are keeping us on the go.

Beautiful Christmas trees, colored lights, streamers, ornaments, all delight our hearts, both young and old. But let's remember that the beautiful Christmas angel atop the tree, perhaps of brittle, metallic, or inflammable material, brings also a message of timely warning.

Those tinsel streamers, gay ribbons, metallic snow, the myriad lights, set amid drying branches of evergreen trees and weaths, in one instant can turn happiness into tragedy.

This is not a scarehead - just a reminder in line with the New England Safety Council, to be on safety's side, and to keep that Christmas tree, and evergreen decorations away from doorways, in case of need for a sudden exodus.

Old-time lighted candles have been replaced to a great extent by electric candles and lights. Still lurking behind the scene is that ogre of short circuits, overcrowded lines, gauzy costumes. For even Santa's whiskers can start a serious conflagration.

Office desks, too, should be kept clear of papers and the gift wrappings attendant upon an office party lest carelessly bestowed cigarettes flare up into sudden flame.

Old trees after Christmas should be disposed of in fire-safe areas out of doors. Do not burn them in fire-places, furnaces or stoves, for evergreens burn with almost bomb-like violence.

In case of emergency call your fire department. They are ready and waiting to respond to your call. A kill-joy warning? No, but it has happened, and let's see that it does not happen here in Arlington.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR LOCAL BOYS CLUB

On Thursday evening, December 23, the members of the local Boys' Club will be guests at the annual Christmas Party starting at 7:00 p. m.

An excellent program of entertainment has been lined up by the staff of the Pond Lane Clubhouse and it is expected that some 450 or more youngsters will join in the fun.

The festivities will open with Carol singing led by William (Tiger) Graham and accompanied by Cub Member Billy Kenealy, accompanist. A special showing of the Charles Dickens story of "A Christmas Carol" will be followed by Bob Munstedt Radio and Television entertainer. Bob will do a Ventriloquist number with "Alex Smallwood" the precocious dummy.

A riotous act called "The Lie Detector" will also be on the bill and a fine puppet show will wind up the evening entertainment.

Candy and fruit will be distributed at the close of the program. The Boys' Club staff wishes to remind all club members to bring their membership tickets to gain admission to the party on Thursday night.

Arlington Highway Department Tackles First Storm Of Season With Speed And Efficiency

Unlike the first snow storm of last year, which caught highwaymen in all towns and cities somewhat unprepared, Sunday's storm was predicted as far enough in advance to enable town and state highway officials and workers to mass their equipment hours in advance of the falling of the first snowflakes.

In Arlington, the Highway Department, under the supervision of William J. Toomey, superintendent of highways, was out in full force, and the main streets of the town were quickly cleared within minutes of the onslaught of the snowfall, and kept that way throughout the night. There was no serious interruption to traffic at anytime. As the snow fall intensified Sunday night, additional workers were put to work, with all town trucks, including the the sno-loader on the job ploughing and sanding streets; keeping conditions well under control at all times.

Let's All Cooperate!

Be sure to read the important notice to automobile owners appearing on Page One of this issue of the Arlington Public Works Department, requesting automobile owners to cooperate with the Board of Public Works by NOT parking automobiles on the highways during and after snow storms, while plowing and removal operations are in progress.

In the past, automobiles parked on both public and private ways have greatly hampered the Public Works Department in its snow work.

The Board of Public Works, Thomas J. O'Neill, chairman, Willard A. Wallace and John L. Murphy, will greatly appreciate the cooperation of the residents of the town in this important work.

hard both on stage and off stage, to make the show such a success both socially and financially.
Immediately after Christmas, the Director will gather together his cast of 154 for a few more rehearsals, to present again this fine production that the people of Arlington and the surrounding towns are talking about.

So great was the fame of this show that already at least three organizations outside the Town of Arlington have requested the Director to take the show as is and present it before their organizations.

However, since it will be impossible to keep the cast intact, the final presentation of this show will be given to the people of Arlington and their friends, on Monday evening, January 3, 1949, at the Arlington Robbins Memorial Town Hall, at 8:15 o'clock.

I Wonder?

I WONDER if the Highway Department of Arlington wasn't the earliest on the job after the first snow storm of the season, as compared to other neighboring cities and towns?

I WONDER if Director "Bill" Finn, of the 'Swanee Minstrels' fame, isn't gratified at the praise he is receiving from hundreds who enjoyed his two fine performances of the show?

I WONDER if Arlington's display of Christmas lighting and the illumination of Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Library and the beautiful town Christmas tree, isn't the finest display of the season this side of Heaven?

I WONDER if the member of the St. James Parish do not feel pretty proud in being the only organization in the history of the Town of Arlington ever forced by public demand to repeat their show, "Swanee Minstrels?"

I WONDER if Frank Hart's address of welcome at the "Swanee Minstrels," wasn't one of the finest addresses heard in a long time here in Arlington.

I WONDER if Dick Powers, the old time Minstrel boy didn't fill the bill as interlocutor in the "Swanee Minstrels," and certainly added pep to the show as a great showman?

Arlington police are still looking for a man who recently passed a worthless check at the Town Hall Market, in Arlington Center. The proprietor of the market complained to the police, reporting that the check was drawn on a Boston bank. The man wanted by the police is described as being between 30 to 35 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches tall, and weighing about 150 to 160 pounds, black hair and dark complexion. He is said to have worn a turtle neck sweater, dark trousers and dark topecoat.

As this holiday season makes a perfect background for the passing of other worthless checks, the police have warned Arlington merchants to be on the alert to report at once anyone of a suspicious nature.

Superb Production At Exeter Theatre

Bearing more acclaim than any other foreign picture that has come to this country in years, "Paisan", the latest supper screen production by Roberto Rossellini, will begin an extended run at the Exeter Street Theatre, Sunday, December 26.

"Paisan" received every single award established in Europe last year. It is undoubtedly slated to receive Hollywood's "Oscar" for the year's outstanding foreign film when the picture makers assemble soon to award their annual prizes.

The picture was especially plan-

"Paisan" is an entertaining as it is dramatic and the presence of Harriet White, a Winthrop girl, in the cast, is of additional interest to film goers in metropolitan Boston.

Arlington Wins To Retain Lead; Defeats Cambridge Latin 4-1

Arlington's undefeated sextet remained on the top of the heap in the Greater Boston Interscholastic league on Saturday afternoon, at the Garden, by coming from behind in the second period to pin a convincing 4 to 1 defeat on Cambridge Latin, before a slim gathering of three thousand fans.

For Arlington, it was its third win of the campaign, and the Spy Pond sextet was forced to overcome a one goal first period lead taken by the Cantabs on Jim Murphy's goal at 4:51 of the opening period. In the second period, Arlington scored twice on combination plays by Bill Leary and Bill Meehan. Meehan racked up the tying tally at 1:50, with Leary assisting and then Leary drove home the second goal of the period at 8:35, this time Meehan assisting. Ed Robson and Frank Wright put the game safely away in the finale with their tallies.

METROPOLITAN SEWER EXT. IS NOW BEING INSTALLED

Many people in Arlington have inquired about the large 60 inch pipes now being lined up on the Alewife Brook Parkway, and the work being carried on there by the Metropolitan District Commission. This work is being done under the direction of Commissioner William T. Morrissey and his department, and is to replace the present Sewer System coming down through that area from Watertown, Belmont and the lower part of Arlington. When completed, it will properly take care of present and future needs of this area and will clean up part of the present pollution of Alewife Brook from the overflow valve at the Arlington-Belmont line. The elimination of this pollution and that of some of the ditch drains into the brook will improve this whole area, it was pointed out to Representative-elect Henry E. Keenan by Commissioner Morrissey. This resulted in the filing of a bill in the coming session of the legislature by Representative-elect Keenan to improve, pave and maintain the brook to make it an attractive entrance to Arlington. It has long been an eyesore and an unhealthy condition in the town.

It has been a dangerous spot for children and a mosquito breeding area. This brook drains the lower area of Arlington.

The question of covering over the brook was gone into, but the cost would exceed $1,000,000. As Boston pays about 51 per cent of the bill on M. D. C. improvements, and Arlington only 8 per cent the project was ruled out. Additional factors have to be considered—the brook drains the pond known as Little Spy and Spy Pond itself. The Arlington Heights reservoir pipes also drain into Spy Pond. In the event of excessive rains or melting snow, a flood condition could easily result. This would necessitate a large pipe if the brook were enclosed, and consequently run up the cost of completely covering the brook.

When you take into consideration that this brook flows through three representative districts, namely: the 3rd, 25th and 28th Middlesex Districts, it is to the interest of the people in these districts to write to their senators and representatives to have this area improved for the benefit of the residents. The brook flows through a good residential section past a large and beautiful church, the Dillboy Field playground and the proposed Veterans Housing area in Arlington. It should be made an attractive area.

Petitions are available for signatures at the office of Representative-elect Henry E. Keenan, and for groups to circulate in their respective districts. If it is considered that there are some 2,500 bills to be acted upon in the coming session of the legislature, it is evident that bills which have the support of residents in the area will be given attention. Therefore it is necessary for those interested not to take the let-George do it attitude, but to solicit actively friends and neighbors to circulate these petitions so as to get things done for this area.

Similar petitions are available for the extension of the subway from Harvard Square to the Arlington-North Cambridge line; for the widening of the Summer street Boulevard from Brattle street to the Lexington line. These petitions should also be circulated to have these matters receive proper attention at the coming session of the legislature.

Arlington Man Is Honored By Boston Appointment

An Arlington resident, Charles A. Birmingham, of 215 Massachusetts Avenue, is receiving the congratulations of his many friends over his recent appointment by Major James M. Curley, as a trustee of the Boston Metropolitan District. The purpose of this important five member board is the financing of the Metropolitan Transit Authority through bond issues.

Mr. Birmingham is a professor at a Suffolk University law school and is the legal representative of the Board of Trustees of Boston College. He succeeds Robert J. Bottomly as clerk of the Metropolitan District Board, and his term will run until October 24, 1949, when Major Curley may appoint him for a further two year period. Under the terms of the law, four of the members are appointed for two years terms by the Governor of Massachusetts, and one by the Mayor of Boston. Mrs. Birmingham who is a graduate of Boston College and Boston University Law School, also served as president of the Boston College Alumni Association for several years, and is at the present time, chairman of the latter's building fund committee, in which position he is rendering outstanding and distinguished service.

BUILDING PERMITS

The following building permits were issued recently: James Taurasi, of 82 Bates road, for single houses at 54, 58, 62 and 66 Mott street; also for a single dwelling to be erected at 301 Concord Turnpike. Work is now being pushed on the new apartment house on Pleasant street. The group of attractive apartment building located at Massachusetts Avenue at Highland Avenue, has now been completed.

High Schoolers Win Praise For Help In Christmas Seal Sales

Most residents of Arlington are by this time using their annual Christmas Seals on cards, letters, and packages sold for the purpose of helping fight tuberculosis.

Much credit goes to the pupils and teachers of the Arlington high school, who prepared the 1948 Christmas material which was mailed out. The pupils took pleasure in the time spent in folding letters and seals, and in enclosing them in envelopes and sealing them with machines before placing the complete packages in mail bags.

Harry T. Fox, 430 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington chairman of the local Tuberculosis committee, expressed his thanks for the work done by the school pupils and their teachers, and gave a special word of thanks to Miss Regina Ahern, Miss Glenna Kelly and W. Ray Burke, teachers, as well as to Raymond S. Morrill, principal, who were especially helpful.

The school pupils have for many years now aided in the sale of Christmas seals. As is well-known, the proceeds from these Seals is used to carry on the work of prevention and control of this dread disease by the local tuberculosis committee and the Middlesex Health Association.
